

President Obama links economy, education in State of the Union

President Obama outlines a bold vision to restore the American economy and invest in education in State of the Union.

Romney rejected by South Carolina middle class voters

Candidate only able to connect with the state's wealthiest citizens. And he's not the only one playing "poor little rich boy".

Lawsuit, candidates imperil health care for millions

Do students and families benefit from the national health care law, now before the U.S. Supreme court? What do presidential candidates have to say about the law?

State News Roundup for January 28, 2012

This week we talk teacher evaluation systems in Colorado and Connecticut, marriage equality legislation in New Jersey and draconian education cuts, predominantly aimed at low-income districts, in Pennsylvania.

Election 2012

With crucial state races, ballot measures, and a presidential election in 2012, the course for American

Stay Up To Date Through Social Media!

Keep up with your fellow activists online! The conversation is happening all the time - are you in the know? Get real-time updates about rallies in your state and word about when to call or e-mail your legislators by following us on Facebook and Twitter.

Action of the Week
ESEA - Tell your Representative your thoughts about what will work best for your students and school